Dear friends

Among the many elements of church life which have fallen away or been severely restricted for the past year have been those milestone events known collectively as the “occasional offices”, and in particular baptisms and weddings. We have had just two weddings since the start of Covid, and precisely zero baptisms. (I don't think I have ever before, in my 25 years of ministry, conducted fewer than about 20 baptisms in a year, and often many more!)

So it's with great joy that I can tell you that this Sunday at Holy Trinity we will be admitting a new member into the fellowship of the Christian faith through adult baptism. Those of you who have been to Holy Trinity any time this year will probably have noticed Paul who has been faithfully attending since the New Year and will be baptised in the Parish Mass. Please pray for him as he takes this big step in his journey as a Christian. (My normal practice is for adults to be baptised at the same ceremony as the Bishop confers Confirmation upon them, but under present circumstances the two sacraments will take place on separate occasions. I hope that Bishop Norman will be able to visit some time later this year.)

Can I please remind you that in preparation for our annual meeting on Sunday 30th May, the usual revision of the Church Electoral Roll is now taking place – the revision period ends on 15th May. In response to a query, I ought to clarify that this is a revision for additions (or removals) only – this is not one of those years when the entire roll gets re-done from scratch, so anyone already on the roll can expect to stay on by default. Electoral Roll forms for this and also nomination forms for Churchwarden and PCC membership are available in both churches and on our website, and can be posted or emailed to you if needed.

Fr Haydon Wilcox, who is well known to most of us, asks for this notice to be passed on:
The Revd Haydon Wilcox is running quiet days and evenings at St Columba's Retreat House, Maybury Hill, Woking.

These events will support people as they return into the world from lockdown and will offer the opportunity to share, reflect, to be spiritually fed and gain encouragement.

All Covid protocols will be practised to ensure a safe environment and are restricted to 16 people.

Remaining places: day events (10 am) 12th July; evening events (7 pm) 16th June and 28th September. Many events are now full and additional dates will be offered.

To receive details and make a booking please contact St. Columba's House on Tel. 01483 766 498 or email: admin@stcolumbashouse.org.uk

Midweek Mass this week is as usual: Wednesday, 6:30 pm and Friday, 11:00 am (both at Holy Trinity).

With my love and prayers.

William.

Elements of the Mass

The Paschal Candle

The Paschal Candle represents the light of Christ at the Easter Vigil and through the year. Before it is lit it is ceremonially decorated and blessed. It is marked with the sign of the cross to remind us of the crucifixion. It is marked with an Alpha and Omega (the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet) to remind us that God is the beginning and the end. The candle is also marked with the year in which it is blessed to remind us that God reigns through all time. Placed into the cross are five studs traditionally made or filled with incense grains to represent the nails of the cross. These remind us of the five wounds given to Christ on the cross. The Candle once it is blessed is lit from the Easter Fire. It is then processed through the church like the pillar of light that led the Israelites in the desert. The candle is then used to bless the font and at all baptisms in the year. It represents Christ's presence with us and reminds us of the resurrection; it is for this reason that the candle is also present at funerals in church. Have a close look at your Paschal Candle today – look at the way it is decorated and consider what it can tell you about your faith.

Prayers to Remember

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst form thy Church to be of one heart and one soul in the power of the resurrection and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit: Renew her evermore in her first love; and grant to thy people such a measure of thy grace that their life may be hallowed, their way directed, and their work made fruitful to the good of thy Church and the glory of thy holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

From the Fathers

From a sermon by St Maximus of Turin, Bishop (380 – c.423)

The light of Christ is an endless day that knows no night. Christ is this day, says the Apostle; such is the meaning of his words: Night is almost over; day is at hand! He tells us that night is almost over, not that it is about to fall. By this we are meant to understand that the coming of Christ's light puts Satan's darkness to flight, leaving no place for any shadow of sin. His everlasting radiance dispels the dark clouds of the past and checks the hidden growth of vice. The Son is that day to whom the day, which is the Father, communicates the mystery of his divinity. He is the day who says through the mouth of Solomon: I have caused an unfailing light to rise in heaven. And as in heaven no night can follow day, so no sin can overshadow the justice of Christ. The celestial day is perpetually bright and shining with brilliant light; clouds can never darken its skies. In the same way, the light of Christ is eternally glowing with luminous radiance and can never be extinguished by the darkness of sin. This is why John the evangelist says: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to overpower it. And so, my brothers, each of us ought surely to rejoice on this holy day!

Cultivating the Vine

'I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever abides in me with me in him, bears fruit in plenty.' In the Fourth Gospel the Lord often uses the word 'abide' to describe both his relationship with his heavenly Father, and his closeness with those whom he has called to himself, the Church. Abide expresses an intimacy of relationship, a closeness that is quite so close as to be not merely a 'living with' or 'alongside' someone, but – radically! - a living within them, an 'in-dwelling.' St John's telling of the Gospel explores deeply this theme of in-dwelling. In today's Mass we hear that it is only in and through this intimate in-dwelling that we can 'bear fruit'. The Gospel's wonderfully earthy and organic language speaks to us of growing, maturation, a coming over time to fruitfulness. It speaks of and proclaims fecundity! Our life in Christ is a life of nothing less than our active participation in Christ, participation in him who is the source and ground and glory of our faith, participation in the Word made flesh, a participation in the one who is the fulfilment of all God's salvific intent. Participation in Christ makes holy our lives, directs our works, and draws us ever onward, ever upward, to the perfection of life we call salvation, the life that is eternal. To strengthen us in this life of active and dynamic participation in Christ, the Lord has given himself to us in the Holy Sacrament of his Body and Blood, the sacrament of his in-dwelling, to which sacrament day-by-day and week-on-week we must return for life-giving nourishment.
